

It is so nice to not have to contend with people interrupting meals, visits, etc. with unwanted calls. Indiana was a leader in the no-call and the state's sovereignty in this matter should be recognized and allowed to stand.